Representative Cy Thao, who will give the graduation address, graduated from UMM in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in political science and studio art. When Thao was elected to Minnesota's House of Representatives in 2002, he became the state's first Hmong representative, and the second Hmong to be elected to the Minnesota Legislature.

Thao was born in Laos and lived in refugee camps in Thailand for five years before coming to the United States. He went on to become an award-winning artist and actor. He also taught in the Minneapolis Public Schools and was the first executive director of the Center of Hmong Arts and Talent in St. Paul.

An exhibit featuring Thao's paintings - "The Hmong Migration: Fifty Paintings" - was included in the 2004 HFA Gallery's exhibit schedule at UMM.

Following the graduation address, the Iron Bull Singers will present "Honor Song" in recognition of the campus' origin as an American Indian boarding school.

John F. Schwaller, vice chancellor for academic affairs and dean, will present the student candidates for degrees. Regent Patricia Simmons will confer the degrees. Juli Yauch Wagner '92, will provide a welcome to the new graduates on behalf of the UMM Alumni Association.
